The St Paul

Risk Control

"We teach our clients to survive more than disaster."

USG and The St Paul Companies

USG has developed a unique and efficient way to create a recovery plan for clients. A USG engagement also includes their signature team training exercise. USG provides the most complete recovery planning program increasing client survivability and compliance.

Why USG?

Costs of recovery are significant. Studies show that 40% of fortune 1000 companies will not be in business two years after disaster strikes, if not properly prepared.

Disaster comes in many forms and can affect every aspect of your business. There is no prevention from disaster, but proper and complete planning and effective training can mitigate risk of loss.

USG can help by creating a comprehensive recovery plan and train key staff to recover after disaster keeping clients compliant with regulations.
